6.6.4 For Constitutional reservation category candidates: Ear-Marking Reserved category candidate entitled to admission on the basis of merit in an open category seat will have the option of taking admission either against his/her respective category seat or on an open category seat. If he/she opts for the reserved category he/she will be deemed to have been admitted as an open category candidate and not as reserved category candidate. One seat in the college where he/she was eligible for admission against open seat shall be earmarked for a candidate belonging to the respective reserved category. Such earmarked seat will be made available immediately to the successive reserved category candidate from the same category merit.

7. Selection Process shall be as follows

7.1 Based on preferences given, the seats will be allotted on merit and the allotment will be displayed on website www.mahacet.org All the candidates to whom a seat has been allotted in the 1st round on the basis of Merit-cum-Preference will have to compulsorily join the college and course so allotted, with in prescribed period by completing the requisite formalities. i.e. submission of original documents as per the list given in 6.3.3 and payment of requisite fees.

7.2 It is made clear that even if a candidate to whom a seat has been allotted in the 1st round wants a betterment of his/her choice, such a candidate must initially accept the allotment and join the college by completing the necessary formalities as set out by these Rules, failing which such a candidate will be thrown out of the entire admission process of the current academic year 2019-2020.

If any candidate to whom a seat has been allotted in the 1st round does not join the college and course seat so allotted, it will be presumed that such a candidate is not interested in the admission process and for all further round(s) of admission, such candidate shall not be considered for allotment of any seat whatsoever.

The seat so allotted to such a candidate who does not join, will be presumed to be a vacant seat as on and from the next date after the date set out as the last date for joining the college in terms of such allotment. Such a vacant seat will be allotted in the next round of admission process within prescribed period.

7.3 All the candidates who have filled the online preference form and to whom a seat could not be allotted in the round will be held eligible for allotment of a seat in the subsequent Round(s).

7.4 After the first Preference Form round, Competent Authority may conduct subsequent preference round(s), based on the same preference form. For aforesaid round those candidates who have not joined / cancelled after allotment of seat(s) will not be considered eligible.

8. FINAL ROUND BY PERSONAL COUNSELING:

8.1 The Competent Authority will issue notification of final round by Personal Counselling on AYUSH website indicating the schedule of selection process. There shall be a final round for allotment of seats remaining vacant after completion of the earlier rounds of allotment of seats by way of online preference forms. This final round of allotment of seats shall be conducted by way of personal counselling instead of allotment on the basis of preference forms and there will be instant seat allocation.

On account of allotment of seats in this final round of admission, no fresh vacancies consequent upon allotments made in this round will be created. This is principally because this final round of allotment is meant to fill up (as far as possible all) available vacant seats without creating a new or fresh vacant seat on account of such allotment.

At this round, eligible candidates will appear personally (Proxy will not be permitted in any circumstances), seeking allotment of seats of their choice. The personal counselling for such allotment will be held strictly in the order of State Merit List (SML) number. Each candidate will be offered all seats that have remain vacant and are available for allotment as per merit and category, only at the time of his/her turn of counselling i.e. State Merit Position.

8.2 Before personal counselling round all available vacant seats (due to non-allotment/non-joining/Cancellation etc.) will be notified on the website. All the Candidates should carefully go through the vacant seats as notified on website and decide as to whether retain the allotted seat to him/her or to go for Final Personal Counselling round. All the candidates who have joined in the previous round(s), will be given a stipulated period to fill status retention form.

8.3 Status Retention: In case if a candidate to whom a seat has been allotted in the preference form round(s) and who has joined the college accordingly, is satisfied with the allotment, such a candidate must submit a Status-Retention Form (Annexure-G) in the given format on or before prescribed date with the Dean/Principal of the College where such a seat has been allotted to such a candidate. The Dean/ Principal of every Ayurved College to which admissions are so made in terms of these rules, may appoint an appropriate Officer to receive such Status Retention Forms. Upon receipt of such Status Retention Forms, an acknowledgement in writing shall be issued immediately to the concerned candidates to acknowledge the receipt of such a Status Retention Form within the prescribed time. It is mandatory for every such candidate submitting a Status Retention Form to insist for issuance of acknowledgement thereof and to preserve such acknowledgement till the present admission process is finally concluded. In absence of such an acknowledgement, the claim of submission of Status Retention Form within the prescribed time shall not be entertained. Candidate who has submitted Status Retention Form will not be eligible for further CAP online round and Personnel Counselling Round.

It is hereby made clear that the period provided for submission of Status Retention Form is crucial and vital. This period shall not be extended for any reason whatsoever. Submission of the Status Retention Form is an irrevocable and irreversible act for the candidate submitting such Status Retention Form. It is made clear that under no circumstances whatsoever, a candidate will be allowed to submit a Status Retention Form after the aforesaid last date. Under any circumstances whatsoever, a candidate who has submitted a Status Retention Form shall not be allowed to withdraw the same either before or any time after the aforesaid last date. All the candidates therefore, are hereby called upon to carefully consider their case before submission of such a Status Retention Form.
