REPORT OF BASIC RESEARCH METHODOLOGY (31 May to 2 June 2021)

Basic Research Methodology Workshop is being conducted by Sumatibhai Shah Ayurved Mahavidyalaya since more than 9 years with a legacy of yearly intellectual feast by multifaceted academicians, researchers and clinicians. This year as well we conducted two virtual workshops from 31st May to 5th June 2021.

This report addresses details of first virtual workshop from 31 May-2 June 2021. Workshop approval for our event was live on MUHS website. We started online procedures immediately. All the registrations were done with online portal for workshop registrations.

Dr Pranita Joshi Deshmukh was appointed as Convener/ Workshop Coordinator for first workshop by Hon. Principal Dr Nilesh Phule. As per the guidelines we completed registrations of thirty one (31) delegates from Ayurveda faculty from the online student list. College authorities and Students representative were pivotal in managing the students' registrations and spreading the word about the workshop formalities.

On Day one with a modest virtual inaugural session we started the workshop delegation in the presence of Hon. Principal Dr Nilesh Phule, Dr Kalaskar PG coordinator and Workshop Convener Dr Pranita Joshi Deshmukh along with organising committee members. Pretest was conducted and then Introduction to Research Methodology and Study Designs-1: Descriptive studies were started.

Day 1 was engaged by Dr Sharayu Kore, Dr Pravin Bhat, Dr Pranita Joshi Deshmukh and Dr Kalpana Ayare. Day 2 was full of interactive lectures and hands on training with group activities started by Dr Sharayu Kore, Dr Pranita Joshi Deshmukh, Dr Ayare and Mrs Manglekar. Day 3 lectures were conducted by Dr Kore, Dr Amit Avlaskar, Dr Pranita Joshi Deshmukh and Dr Swati Raje.

Post-test and feedbacks by delegates were collected and analyzed. Daily feedback and workshop feedbacks were encouraging with more than 3 ratings to 5 ratings out of 5 for all faculties and few suggestions like increase in duration of workshop, more time for group activities were mentioned by delegates.

By a humble valedictory function in the presence of Hon. Principal Dr Phule and Workshop Convener Dr Pranita Joshi Deshmukh workshop was summarized.

Dr Sharayu Kore anchored the session. 'Best participant award' and 'Best delegate group' were selected from their performance for three days and feedback from faculties and were felicitated virtually by dignitaries on the dais.

Overall workshop was well coordinated with dedicated team members in scientific and organizing committee as Convener and faculty Dr Pranita Joshi Deshmukh, Dr Scientific committee members and faculty Dr Sharayu Kore, Dr Jyoti Gavli, other in house faculties Dr Pravin Bhat, Dr Kalpana Ayare, Dr Amol Sable (food), Dr Rita Mangle, Dr Anjana Ghogare, Dr Gayatri Savant, Dr Pallavi Patil, Dr Amol Sable, Dr Supugade and Dr Priyanka Keram (Organizing committee). All members along with non-teaching staff contributed to the success of this workshop.

Analysis of Pre-test and Post-test

31 students Pretest and Post test scores were analyzed, following graph shows difference in mean score.

We would like to thank MUHS and HSET unit for timely guidance and support in every step of organizing this workshop. We appreciate your help. We look forward to future collaborations in HSET activities with MUHS's prestigious platform.
